Covering 460 Hectares, Brampton Island is located in the Cumberland Group of Islands, 32 km north-east of Mackay at the Southern entrance to the Whitsunday Passage.

Shoes off and swimmers on, you shuffle your feet into the golden sands of Brampton Island, home of the best beaches in the Whitsundays. From the greens of the Island's National Park, to the blues of the surrounding Whitsunday waters and its seven golden beaches, Brampton's style is colourful and easy. This is an island big on fun and activity and with so much included – it's a perfect haven for couple in search of a romantic hideaway with all the trimmings.
